

News of the Intermountain Region

HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM SERIOUS INJURY

Street Car and Automobile Mix It on Twenty-Fifth Street.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—As the result of a collision between a westbound street car on Twenty-fifth street Wednesday afternoon and an automobile belonging to William Howell, a member of the firm of Reese Howell & Sons, the machine was reduced to kindling wood and Mr. Howell and his wife, who were in the automobile at the time of the collision, had a narrow escape from severe injury or instant death.

Just where the blame for the accident lies cannot be told. Mr. Howell, who was driving the machine, and Motorman Ted Hart of the car which struck the machine give different versions of how it happened. The collision occurred at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Grant avenue. Both occupants of the machine were hurled several feet by the impact of the two moving cars. Howell sustained several bruises on his body and Rogers badly bruised his arm, according to him, by the machine, when he saw the automobile standing in front of a store near Carr's drug store. Before he had time to switch off the power, he asserts, the auto was started and attempted to cross the tracks without either of the occupants observing the approach of the street car.

Mr. Howell, on the other hand, declares that the street car was being run at a high and excessive rate of speed, that no signal was given by the motorman of its approach and that he was in the companion were aware of their danger until they were immediately in front of the approaching car. Then, he says, he saved the machine from complete loss by reversing the lever, although it was dragged seventy-five feet before the car was stopped.

VAITON IS NOW AFTER OGDEN CITY COUNCIL

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Another chapter in the legal fight being conducted against the mayor and city recorder of this city by Edward Vaiton, who is applying for a saloon license, was added to the records of the district court Wednesday, when a supplemental affidavit was filed by the negro, who is already before the court to include the members of the city council in the alternative writ of mandate issued several days ago against Mayor Brewer and City Recorder Brown. The reason stated is because the council met in special session, October 21, and passed a resolution reconsidering its previous action in granting the license on October 12.

The negro says that he is informed and believes that the action of the city officials in refusing him a license is due to the fact that there is already a saloon in the city and another conducted by a member of his race would be too many.

The writ of mandate is returnable next Friday, when the mayor, city recorder and probably the council will appear in the district court and show cause why the license be not issued.

HEAVIEST REGISTRATION IN HISTORY OF OGDEN

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Prominent politicians of the city, who visited the several registration districts in Ogden Tuesday and Wednesday, estimate that when the registration agents closed their books at 3 o'clock Wednesday night close to 3500 voters had registered. The registration for the past two days is believed to have been the heaviest in the history of the city. With the voters who had registered at previous registration days, it is believed that a total of something like 5000 new names have been added to the books in this city alone. The registration in several of the country precincts is said to be equally heavy in proportion to the population.

ALLEGED PARASITES FORFEIT THEIR BONDS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—A spasmodic effort is being made by the police department to correct some of the most flagrant evils of Electric alley, which is already the fountain of corruption known to exist there.

Three alleged parasites, who live on the earnings of fallen women, were arrested Tuesday, but failed to appear in the police court Wednesday morning, and their bonds of $50 each were declared forfeited. Their names are given as Constant Lol, Charles Mosh and Harry Douglas.

Record-Breaking House.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The Clansman was given at the Grand opera house tonight and was greatly enjoyed by the largest audience that has been seen in the house for years.

Tag when? October 31.

More Converts Every Year

Every day in every year that comes, more housewives are giving up their exorbitant priced Baking Powders and turning to K. C. the honest and reliable, which has stood so well the test of years. They are finding out that costs one third the price of powder anywhere near K. C. quality, and makes better, purer, more healthful baking.

K. C. BAKING POWDER

25 Ounces for 25 Cents

Perfect Results

OGDEN DEPARTMENT

TEMPORARY OFFICE, CORNER TWENTY-FIFTH STREET AND WASHINGTON AVENUE, UNDER OGDEN STATE BANK. TELEPHONE 111; OFFICE HOURS 8 A. M. TO 10:30 A. M., 6 P. M. TO 8 P. M.

Serious Offense Charged.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—A complaint charging George Leonard of Morgan with a criminal assault was issued by District Attorney George Halverson Wednesday. The victim of the alleged assault is Nellie Robinson, the 13-year-old daughter of Sheriff Robinson of Morgan county. After the alleged assault, which was brought to this city for safe keeping. Feeling against him still runs high, it is said. The prisoner was employed as a book agent at the time the affair was alleged to have occurred.

Hall Gives Lecture.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Prof. Mosiah Hall of the state university was a visitor in Ogden Wednesday. His address was at the Ogden hotel. He is a member of the institution for those seeking a higher education than that afforded at the high school. An address was also delivered to the teachers.

Licensed to Wed.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—A license to marry was issued by the county clerk Wednesday to Ward Meyer, Gooding, Ida, and Stella Cohn, Wellington, Kansas.

SILAS W. MOODY OF BOISE DIES SUDDENLY

Special to The Tribune.

BOISE, Oct. 28.—Silas W. Moody, who was at one time territorial auditor and superintendent of public instruction, also a member of the territorial senate, for many years a prominent Odd Fellow and Republican politician, and who was one of the ablest lawyers and orators in this state, died in this city at a late hour last night of heart trouble. He almost until his death had taken part in the campaign, most of his time having been put in at Republican headquarters. The funeral services over the remains of Mr. Moody will be in charge of the Odd Fellows.

Provo News Notes.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Oct. 28.—Ephraim Boren, aged 55, an old-time resident of Provo, died Saturday at San Pedro, Cal., from typhoid pneumonia. The remains were shipped here for interment. Funeral services will be held from the Fifth ward meeting house at Thursday at 1 o'clock, and will be in charge of the local B. P. O. E. Rev. Elmer L. Goshen of Salt Lake City will preach the funeral sermon. In the fourth district court today Judge Ritchie of Salt Lake heard the evidence in the case of Ephraim Boren vs. the Alpine Irrigation company. The suit involves the right to the use of the waters of Alpine creek.

Mary E. McBeth, as administratrix of the estate of William McBeth, deceased, has begun suit in the district court against James Leese and forty other defendants to quiet title to fifty-eight and one-half acres of land in section 6, township 9 north, range 2 east, in the city of Provo. Judgment was entered today in the district court against P. H. Boreley for $55.40 and in favor of Charles H. Boreley.

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk to Ben Adams and Margaret Adamson of Pleasant Grove, William Larson and Fern Featherstone of American Fork.

Southern Utah Presbytery.

Special to The Tribune.

MAINT, Oct. 28.—The Presbyterian ministers of southern Utah met here yesterday to organize the Southern Utah Presbytery.

This became necessary on account of the action of the synod which met recently at Idaho Falls, whereby Utah was divided into three presbyteries—Ogden and North Ogden one, Salt Lake and as far south as Jubah county another, and southern Utah the third, comprising the following fourteen counties: Sanpete, Emery, Grand, Carbon, Sevier, Millard, Beaver, Kane, Wayne, Iron, Garfield, San Juan, Kane and Washington. In this southern district there are at present eight ministers.

The three presbyteries into which the state has been divided will from now on constitute a synod, Utah formerly has belonged to the synod comprised of the presbyteries of Utah, Idaho and Wyoming.

Death of Violet Smith.

Special to The Tribune.

KATYVILLE, Oct. 28.—Violet Smith, one of Katyville's most estimable young ladies, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Smith, at 3 o'clock this morning, after a brief illness, from which she had suffered some weeks. Miss Smith was born in Katyville December 1, 1885, and had spent her entire life here. When deceased was stricken with the dread disease she was in the employ of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company in the capacity of operator in the Katyville exchange. Miss Smith's demise will be mourned by a host of relatives and friends, with whom she was very popular.

Thomas B. Stubbs Dead.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, Oct. 28.—After an illness extending over a period of more than twelve months, Thomas B. Stubbs, well known in this city, died today from a cancer of the jaw, in his thirtieth year. He is survived by a widow and two small children. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Highest Quality

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The Clansman was given at the Grand opera house tonight and was greatly enjoyed by the largest audience that has been seen in the house for years.

Record-Breaking House.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The Clansman was given at the Grand opera house tonight and was greatly enjoyed by the largest audience that has been seen in the house for years.

Tag when? October 31.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The Clansman was given at the Grand opera house tonight and was greatly enjoyed by the largest audience that has been seen in the house for years.

Typewriter Supplies Special.

One ribbon for any machine, one dozen notebooks, bottle typewriter, a dozen pens, one eraser, one stenographer's pencil, all for one dollar, this week only. First Typewriter Exchange Co. Either phone 520.

Tag when? October 31.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The Clansman was given at the Grand opera house tonight and was greatly enjoyed by the largest audience that has been seen in the house for years.

BANK CLEARINGS ARE CLIMBING UP

Some idea of the returning business prosperity here may be gained from the fact that for the first time in many months the bank clearings exceeded the accounts for the corresponding days of last year.

The totals for October 27 were $773,328.29, as against $746,630.26 for the corresponding day last year, making a gain for the two days of $133,293 over last year.

For Your Breakfast

The Tribune is now reaching Ogden on the special newspaper train on the Bamberger road, at 6:20 every morning. It can be delivered to you for breakfast. Don't you think you can start the day better equipped if you get a look at all of the world's news before you leave home? Phone the Ogden branch manager. He'll do the rest.

Important Meeting.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Students and graduates of the Sheldon school, and members of the Retail Merchants' association and their employees, are invited to a meeting with Professor Rogers in the Hotel building, 421 Twenty-fifth street, Thursday evening, October 29. Questions of interest to every business man will be discussed.

BIG AMERICAN RALLY IS HELD AT KAMAS

Special to The Tribune.

KAMAS, Oct. 28.—Over half of the residents of this place attended a monster American party rally held at the town hall last night. Great enthusiasm was displayed and the meeting was declared to be the best political gathering ever held here. While there were many professed Mormons in the audience, the speakers were all non-Mormons.

J. F. Gibbs was the principal speaker of the evening and remarks also were made by Charles Mayo of Denver, a Republican candidate for county commissioner; William Herkshaw, nominee for sheriff of the county; and others.

Everybody in the large audience was attentive to what the speakers had to say and their remarks were apparently deeply appreciated.

ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY IS HELD AT STOCKTON

Special to The Tribune.

STOCKTON, Oct. 28.—The American party rally tonight was one of the most enthusiastic affairs of the kind ever held here. Practically the entire town turned out and listened intently to the address delivered by W. S. Dalton on the necessity of securing the American party victory.

Mr. Dalton's remarks were frequently interrupted by applause, and the interest and enthusiasm here in favor of American principles.

Ephraim Notes.

Special to The Tribune.

EPHRAIM, Oct. 28.—Mrs. John Otterstrom, wife of the late John Otterstrom, died yesterday from an attack of peritonitis. She was 54 years old and was a native of Denmark. She is survived by five children.

A bold attempt to break into the Bell Telephone office at Beaver was made this morning by a stranger man, who, it is thought, intended to commit a robbery. He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

He was stopped and frightened away, however, before he could gain entrance, by one of the women operators.

CURTIS PUTS ALL BLAME ON MORSE

Testifies That Banker and Promoter Was Acting Against His Protest.

BIG LOAN TO HEINZE

FIGURES IN THE CASE

Curtis Turned Down Application, but Morse Favored the Montana Magnate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The apparent determination of Alfred H. Curtis to exonerate himself of all blame respecting the banking transactions for which he and Charles W. Morse are now undergoing trial in the United States District court here became more defined today, when, under the prompting of his attorney, Mr. Curtis produced a letter written by him under date of June 13, 1907, and addressed to Morse, in which he protested vigorously against the continuance of practices which he believed to be illegal.

Curtis's opinion constituted a grave menace to the stability of the Bank of North America. The incident of the over-draft of $210,000 by Morse was made the subject of searching questions by the witness's own attorney, Mr. Curtis related the coming of F. Augustus Heinze to him with a request for a loan of $125,000 and his refusal to grant the money.

Morse remonstrated with him, saying, "Unless we let them have the money they must go to the wall."

Curtis stood firm, however, he said, and retorted:

"They cannot have a cent of the bank's money; if they must fail, they must fail."

Morse Favored Heinze.

But to his amazement, he testified, a personal check of Charles W. Morse for $125,000, drawn to the order of Heinze, came through the next day. The check had been honored, although at the time the witness said, Morse had a balance to his credit of only $3100.

"I told him that," the witness said, "and told him that he must protect the bank and at once wipe out his overdraft. Mr. Morse sent out and got two boxes of securities and turned over to me the control of the bank, and he offered to give me an order on $1,000,000 of steamship bonds which he had on deposit in London. I accepted, and upon being given the order at once enabled to London to have the securities made subject to the Bank of North America's order."

The witness was then turned over to the attorneys for Morse for what virtually proved to be examination. Despite the efforts of Morse's attorneys to present Curtis in the light of a free agent, who at all times was not under the control of Morse, the witness insisted in maintaining his contention that he was but the instrument of another's will and purpose.

An adjournment was taken until tomorrow, when Mr. Curtis will be further questioned.

Pictures and Frames.

Midgley-Bodel Co., 33 E. 1st South.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

S. M. Taylor & Co., successors to Joseph E. Taylor, undertakers and embalmers. Same address, 251-253-255 E. 1st South.

REQUISITION PAPERS FOR ITALIAN HONORED

Gov. John C. Cutler Wednesday honored the requisition of Gov. George A. Fairbanks of Nebraska for the extradition of Raffaele Vatalaro, an Italian, charged with shooting with intent to kill a constable named Substantino Tarco, in Douglas county, Nebraska, May 31, this year. The papers were presented by Detective Thomas J. Mitchell of Omaha.

According to the affidavit of Turco, which accompanied the requisition papers, Vatalaro and two or three other persons, upon being given the order at once enabled to London to have the securities made subject to the Bank of North America's order."

Upon Detective Mitchell's arrival in this city Wednesday, Mr. Vatalaro was taken from the Utah county jail at Provo to the city jail here.

That this was his first trip into this locality and he was most favorably impressed with the country. Especially did he like the Salt Lake valley. He was taken to Salt Lake valley place where he was held by the sheriff of Utah county upon information and descriptions of Vatalaro furnished by the Nebraska authorities.

The detective and his prisoner will leave early this (Thursday) morning for Omaha.

ARTHUR PEDERSEN-FREBER HONORED BY HIS MANY SALT LAKE FRIENDS

Utah has been justly proud of her sons and daughters who have been the recipients of well-deserved praise when far away from the homeland, and it was with hearts full of appreciation of the faithful study of the life of Arthur Pedersen-Freber that the testimonial concert was given in honor of Arthur Pedersen-Freber at the Salt Lake theatre Wednesday evening.

When the personnel of the musicians who offered their services were known to the music-loving public there was much enthusiasm, as the event promised to be one of the most pleasing of the season.

The programme opened with the Scherzo from Quintets, Op. 81, by Dvorak, given by the new Salt Lake Symphony quintette. This was delightfully rendered with Mr. Pedersen-Freber, a well-known baritone, gave the numbers, "The Rosary" and "Marching Song," by J. J. McCallan.

Arthur Pedersen-Freber gave as his first number, Turlin's famous "Devil's Dance," a composition which is well adapted to show to the best advantage the genius of the young artist. In the grasp of his skillful fingers the bow seemed a magic wand, breathing into the little instrument the story of life in all its varied phases, now sobbing with the wail of sorrow, now bursting forth in a joyous song of love and passion.

The singing of M. J. Brines was, as usual, enthusiastically received, and after giving "Chadwick's" "Before the Dawn," he responded to the applause which always greets him with "The Little Irish Girl."

The duet solo by Willard Flashman, with J. J. McCallan at the piano, was delightfully given and was one of the features of the evening.

Mrs. Rennie Pedersen-Walsh, well known in Salt Lake musical circles, was accompanied by the Salt Lake Symphony and the announcement of the programme was given by her.

The soprano solo, "Salve Regina," by Mrs. Anna Colborn-Plummer, with accompaniment by the Salt Lake Symphony, was most pleasing.

The programme closed with the work of Willard Flashman, which was rendered by Willard Flashman and Mr. Pedersen-Freber, with Professor Anton Pedersen-Freber as a pianist. This number was more than pleasing.

The work of Willard Flashman as a violinist and that of Professor Anton Pedersen-Freber as a pianist is too well known to require comment, and the work of Mr. Pedersen-Freber, shown in the concerto, justifies his position in the belief that there is a brilliant musical career in store for him.

W. C. T. U. APPROVES FIGHT ON "UNCLE JOE"

Resolution That Leaves Nothing to Be Guessed at Unanimously Adopted.

DENVER, Oct. 28.—The National Woman's Christian Temperance union convention today adopted with practical unanimity a resolution commending the efforts of churches to defeat the re-election of Joseph G. Cannon as a member of Congress.

The resolution, which was introduced by Mrs. Mary E. Kuhl, president of the Illinois W. C. T. U., follows: "Resolved, That we, the women of the W. C. T. U., in convention assembled, do hereby express a most hearty commendation of the action taken by the Methodist, Episcopal church and the several churches in their brave effort to defeat the election of Speaker Cannon to our national Congress because of his persistent opposition to the many reform measures which have been proposed by intelligent bodies."

The convention also adopted a resolution introduced by Mrs. Mary E. Kuhl, superintendent of the department of mercy, pledging efforts to suppress every form of cruelty and to "work for legislation prescribing humane education in the public schools in the states where it does not already exist."

In Hotel Corridors

A number of men prominent in business life have arrived at the local hotels during the past twenty-four hours. The increase in guests noted Tuesday evening, and the week still gives every indication of being a record-breaker. The hotel business men here are all well known business men to reserve rooms for them for the near future, and Salt Lake City seems in a fair way to become the mecca for people of prominence within the next few weeks.

Among those registered at the Knottford are: J. M. Davis, superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, who arrived from San Francisco Wednesday noon; J. A. Lewis and S. S. Rosenstamm, both of New York, metal sign men, who are known among the mining men of the West; J. E. McElhinney, assistant general passenger agent of the Burlington, from Omaha; and E. S. Francis, a contractor of Chicago.

A. J. Knollin of Chicago, one of the big sheepmen of the West, is at the Kenyon for a few days.

E. T. Merritt, connected with the Green River Land and Improvement company, is among the guests at the Wilson.